DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 – 5 and 8 - 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application No. 2002/0091573 (Hodes) in view of U.S. Patent No. 6829596 (Frazee).

With respect to claims 1 – 19, note that Hodes teaches a system that provides telephone response unit based services including a POS terminal 302, Fig. 43 – 45 and 49 – 50, phone based services 0096, IVR (paragraph 0160), status information (paragraph 0176), account information (0090, 104 and 106), magnetic stripe 64, smart card (paragraph 0110), bar-coded card and RFID (paragraph 0016), store valued card (paragraph 00050), and a smart chip (paragraph 0015). In addition, note the Abstract and the Summary of the Invention.

With respect to the presently added steps in the amended method claims, such steps are so well known in the art as shown by Frazee (see Figs. 1, 2 and 6 and at least Col. 11, lines 29 – 40). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have incorporated such presently added new steps into the Hodes device and system in order to have a more secure and efficient system.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 – 5 and 8 - 19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
